Dear Ms Johnstone,

I can only entertain a complaint against a member of UE if:

1. The member allegedly has breached the constitution of UE.
2. The alleged breach is specified – in other words the specific clause of the UE constitution which allegedly has been breached and details of the alleged breach.

Your complaint thus must be specific and include date, place, the conduct complained of and the specific clause of the UE constitution allegedly breached. All these requirements must be present in the opening paragraph of your complaint and must be clearly evident from this first paragraph. Please desist from attaching annexures at this stage and initially please simply succinctly summarise the above in a paragraph. I will then revert to you and Mr Le Roux about the way ahead.

If your complaint does not comply with the above, I cannot entertain it.

Keith Matthee

Dear Ms Johnstone,

In the light of your refusal in effect to accord natural justice to the members of UE, by refusing to provide the details requested by me, I am unable to take this matter further.

As ombudsman, I will now regard this matter as closed, particularly regard also being had to the previous history in this matter.

Practically speaking this means I will not engage in any further exchanges with you, so please do not be offended if future emails from you are not answered.

Yours sincerely,

Keith Matthee
